Day 14: Cao Dai Temple – Cu Chi Tunnel Half Day (B/L)

Have Breakfast at your hotel.

08:00–08:30: We will take you to Tay Ninh – a province 95 km South East of HCMC, close to the Cambodian border. The Cao Dai Temple is often described as the “Walt Disney fantasia of the East”. Its exterior is decorated with multi-colored dragons of all shapes and sizes competing for space with a number of swastikas. Above the main entrance is the all-seeing holy eye, the symbol of the Cao Dai sect, whilst the interior is just as engaging with statues of Jesus Christ, the Buddha and the Hindu god Brahma, standing side by side.

At about 13.00, after lunch, we will leave Tay Ninh and travel to Cu Chi. Once in Vietnam, this is a must-visit spot. It is where guerilla warfare was optimized and exemplified. You’ll learn all about the clever design of the tunnels and the strategic use of trap doors. Even with B-52 bombers dropping 30-ton loads of explosive that turned the jungle into a pockmarked moonscape, 30 thousand American troops failed to conquer the area! You’ll have a good chance to crawl around a portion of the 121 km long, multi-layered tunnel. You’ll learn how thousands of guerillas managed to stay underground many days at a time, using novel technique to conceal their cooking smoke. There’re a lot more to enjoy, and for the more adventurous there’s even an opportunity to fire real AK bullets.

17:30: Back to De Tham St – Pham Ngu Lao St. Have dinner on your account.

Overnight in Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 15: Ho Chi Minh – Cai Be – Vinh Long – Can Tho (L/D)

07:30: Depart for Cai Be for an interesting 3 hours drive. On the way, you can see the green paddy fields stretching towards the horizon. When you arrive at Cai Be, you’ll board a motorized boat that takes you to the famous floating market - spend about 1 hour here for an interaction you cannot find anywhere else in the world. Next, your boat will zigzag through a maze of shadow canals before arriving at a great orchard, where you can freely taste some of the famous tropical fruits of Vietnam, and watch the locals’ go about their daily chores. Then we will rent some bicycles and roam through a peaceful village to check out the old rural shops, alternatively we can just relax on a hammock for a short rest. We’ll find out about how coconut candy and crispy rice cakes are made here (served free with premium hot tea). Finally we’ll land at a market place – for a chance to find out what the rural Vietnamese people sell.

You are encouraged to interact with the vendors, to see how friendly and respectful they are. The gifts are cheap and perfect for taking home to friends!

We spend about ½ hour here before boarding our bus to Can Tho.
