Day 10: Cao Dai Temple – Cu Chi Tunnel Half Day (B/L)

Have breakfast at your hotel.

08:00 – 08:30: We will take you to Tay Ninh – a province 95kms South East of HCMC, close to Cambodian border. The Cao Dai Temple is commonly known as a ‘Walt Disney’ fantasia of the East. Above the main entrance is the all-seeing holy eye - the symbol of the Cao Dai sect. The interior is just as engaging with its statues of Jesus Christ, Buddha and the Hindu god, Brahma, all standing side by side.

13:00: After lunch, we will leave Tay Ninh and travel to Cu Chi. Everyone coming to Vietnam must see this spot! This is where guerilla warfare practiced and tweaked. You’ll learn about the clever design of the tunnels and the strategic positioning of trap doors. Even with B-52 bombers dropping 30-ton loads of explosive, turning the jungle into a pockmarked moonscape, 30 thousand American troops failed to conquer the area! You’ll have a good chance to crawl around a portion of the 121 km long, multi-layered tunnel. You’ll also learn how thousands of guerillas managed to stay undiscovered beneath the earth for many days at a time, concealing all living activities like cooking smoke. One of the boat’s stops during this trip is at a large orchard that has many different types of tasty tropical fruits for you to sample!

Another boat stop is at the Turtle Island - 1 hours journey away from the orchard. Here, on a small rowing boat, you’ll see all the interesting transportation modes that local people use to move around. From there, we’ll take you to a bee farm where you’ll have a chance to taste a delicious cup of authentic honey tea while checking out the folk music (typical to only the people in Southern Vietnam). After that we’ll take you to a famous coconut village where you can smell the flavor of coconut candies being made just a few yards away. This is a great chance to witness how skilled the village people are in making candy and handcrafted items out of the coconuts, as well as the diversity of what useful objects they can make.
