In his calendar of Saints were such luminaries as Victor Hugo, Allan Kerdec, Joan of Arc, de la Rochefoucauld, St Bernard, St John the Baptist and the Jade Emperor. More recently described by some as a Walt Disney fantasia of the East, its exterior is decorated with multi-colored dragons of all shapes and sizes competing for space with a number of ancient symbols representing the amalgam of religions it represented. Above the main entrance is the all-seeing holy eye, the symbol of the Cao Dai sect. The interior is equally as busy with statues of Jesus Christ, Buddha and the Hindu god, Brahma, competing for space, a truly enlightening experience.

13:00: After lunch, the tour moves on to one of the popular attractions in Vietnam, the famous tunnels of Cu Chi.
