We have guide who speaks your language to speak about the historical facts of this building and some other French colonial structures including the Notre Dame Cathedral (constructed in 1877), the General Post Office, and City Hall.

Day 3: Cao Dai Temple – Cu Chi Tunnel Full Day (B/L)

Have breakfast at your hotel.

08:00-08:30: We'll leave for Tay Ninh – a province 95km South East of HCMC, close to the Cambodian border. The Cao Dai Temple has been compared by some as the "Walt Disney" fantasia of the East. Its exterior is decorated with multi-colored dragons of all shapes and sizes, which compete for space with a number of swastikas. Above the main entrance is a symbol of the Cao Dai sect; the all-seeing holy eye. The interior is just as engaging, containing statues of Jesus Christ, Buddha and the Hindu god, Brahma, all standing side by side. We will leave Tay Ninh for Cu Chi at about 1300, after lunch. This is one of Vietnam's must-see locations as it is where guerilla warfare was practiced successfully. You'll learn about the clever design of the tunnels and about the strategic use of trap doors. Even with B-52 bombers dropping 30-ton loads of explosive, turning the jungle into a pockmarked moonscape, 30 thousand American troops failed to win over the area! You'll have a good chance to crawl around a portion of the 121 km long, multi-layered tunnel. You'll learn about how thousands of guerillas managed to stay concealed underground for weeks at a time, even hiding their cooking smoke! For the more adventurous there's even a great chance to fire real AK bullets. At 17:30 we'll head back to hotel where you can have dinner on your account.

Overnight in Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 4: Mekong Delta Tour My Tho – Ben Tre (B/L)

07:30: Pick up at your hotel or 28/13 Bui Vien St, and travel by shuttle bus to My Tho – at 09:30 board a wooden motor boat to go to Unicorn Island. On this boat journey along the river's bank, you'll pass through natural creeks and peaceful villages; you'll be able to see the local people going about their daily lives. Afterwards, visit an interesting fishermen's port – where the houses are on stilts.
